

Timeshare resorts in Mexico

Contributed by TSD Staff

The success of the timeshare industry has resulted in an encouraging growth environment. Developers have begun investing in timeshares in different areas of the globe, including Mexico. Two famous Mexico timeshares are the Mayan Palace Riviera Maya Cancun and the Pueblo Bonito Rose Spa and Resort. Both are part of Sell My Timeshare NOW's 100 hot timeshares list.

The Mayan Palace Riviera timeshare has several features, including the world's largest swimming pool, the Brio spa, and an 18-hole golf course designed by "The Bear" Jack Nicklaus. The property is nestled in a white sand beach with turquoise shores.

The resort offers several timeshare configurations, including studios, one and two bedrooms, and larger bedroom lockouts that can house up to six people.

On the other hand, the Pueblo Bonito Rose Spa and Resort timeshare is located at the El Medano Beach in Cabo San Lucas. It is minutes away from the shopping centers, boutiques, museums, and restaurants of the town. The property has a start-of-the-art fitness room and health club facilities.

Pueblo Bonito Rose Spa and Resort offers several rooming options, including junior suites and luxury penthouses.

Mexico timeshares are perfect for vacationers who want to get away from the hustle and bustle lifestyle of the city. These resorts are the perfect place to get pampered with world class services.
